What customers are saying

For creating, compiling and creating everything from patient data to lesson plans to client accounts, let HP Business Notebooks provide a secure and mobile solution for the information that is most important to you.

Barker Implement

"With our service territory growing along with the number of stores, it's essential for us to provide mobile computing that is powerful, dependable and easy to use. HP Compaq Business Notebook PCs deliver the performance and reliability we need to stay productive and competitive."

Brian Campbell, IT Director, Barker Implement, Iowa

Fresno Heart Hospital

"Access to real-time data is critical to achieving high standards of patient care. By deploying HP Compaq Business Notebooks PCs in our hospital, we've made the patient data more quickly available to doctors. The documentation of vital signs is easier. The notebooks also streamline the processes for ordering lab tests and radiology exams."

Greg Osmondson, Network and Systems Administrator, Fresno Heart Hospital

FirstHealth of the Carolinas

"For our users, the patient is the primary focus, not technology. HP Business Notebook PCs help our hospital, home health care and hospice staff access data more quickly and flexibly. The risk of error has been reduced, and our staff is freer to focus on our patient needs instead of managing data and the technology itself. Our staff needs easy-to-use technology that helps them give their patients first-rate health care. With HP products, we're making that happen."

Susan Bonville, Director of IS Support and Operations, FirstHealth of the Carolinas

Heaven Sent Jewelry

"HP is one of a few corporations that are committed in providing services to small business. From my HP Compaq Business Notebook PC to my HP printer, HP provides the technology that makes my small company as professionally effective as a big firm."

Addy Perez-Mau, President/Designer, Heaven Sent Jewelry, Fountain Valley, Calif.

Kershaw County School District

"We relied heavily on HP's recommendation to help us deploy a notebook that would meet our needs for performance, weight and reliability. Our selection of HP Compaq Business Notebook PCs was based on all of these aspects and in particular, its durability to withstand the classroom environment as well as being transported to and from home."

Dr. Agnes Slayman, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction, Kershaw County School District

Gevity

"The HP ProtectTools encryption and tracking functionality that is included with our HP Compaq Business Notebooks as part of the Total Care portfolio has significantly enhanced our ability to ensure data integrity. We know that we can recover a lost notebook if we need to. We can lower the risk of unauthorized use of our notebooks with credential features. Data security is a critical priority to Gevity. Deploying HP Compaq Business Notebooks has played a major part in helping us become more sophisticated in this area."

Karlene Lawson, Director, IT Operations, Gevity

CROSSMARK

"The HP Compaq Business Notebook PCs strike a balance of functionality and cost. They can be configured to precisely meet our users' needs, and they are highly dependable, which is critical for a company like ours that is so dependent on its PC infrastructure to conduct business."

Hollie Gonzales, Chief Information Officer, CROSSMARK
